In Re:

"A Disposable Wet Wipe For Cleansing a Horse Bit"

Inventor: Susan A. Cook

Application #: 10/719,846

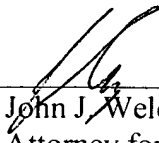

Filing Date: 11/24/2003

EXHIBIT "C"
ARGUMENTS

Your Applicant hereby respectfully submits the following Arguments in furtherance of her Application, to wit:

1. The Amendments "consisting of" limiting the claims to the elements specified are sufficient to overcome rejections in view of EP1285958 since the rosewater and chamomile are considered to be necessary to the disclosed cleaning composition.
2. The instant invention is addressed to the matter of cleansing horse bits thereby facilitating the same being taken by horses. The matter of such cleansing respectfully is not contemplated by the article entitled "Peppermint (Mentha piperita)" as authored by Paula Gardiner, M.D.
